Italian Class Expectations The Italian Syllabus posted on Classroom and on the Website

- Be on time. Lates can result in detentions/write-ups.
- Be prepared- pencils, notebook, Chromebooks(charged)
- All school rules apply in this classroom: respect yourself, respect others, respect school rules, policies and procedures
  - No name-calling, egregious profanity
  - Do not talk while the speaker is talking
- No food, candy, games, tobacco, alcohol, weaponry of any sort, grooming products, paraphernalia related to any of these things, etc.
- Lack of preparation may cost you points on your grade
- Do not use Google Translate
- Cheating is not permitted or tolerated

Procedures

- Upon entering the classroom, come in quietly, and get out any materials needed for the Do Now
- When asking to use the bathroom, ask in Italian- "Scusi, posso andare in bagno"
- When asking to get a drink of water ask in Italian-"Posso andare a bere"
- If you are absent from class, it is your responsibility to get caught up on any missed assignments

Late work

- A week late-80% at most
- More than a week late- 65% at most
- Pass/Fail- Fail can mean that you turned in the assignment late and will automatically appear in the gradebook as a 65.
- Missing in the gradebook automatically appears as a 0. AVOID THIS!

Participation

- Please put effort into all activities, games, group discussions, and assignments
- Participation is also part of your grade!

Grading Policy

Return this portion to Professore Schiano

I understand and have read the rules, procedures, late work, and participation policy for Professore Schiano's Italian class and have informed my parent(s)/guardian(s) of them.

Thank you for your cooperation!
I look forward to a wonderful and exciting year!
