Long Branch Middle School

Long Branch High School

The Goal of Title I

- To provide additional assistance to students who need it most. The funds will help students work towards meeting the New Jersey Department of Education and the Federal Government.

The No Child Left behind Act (NCLB) of 2001 was signed into law on January 8, 2002 by President Bush. The Act represents the President's education reform plan and contains changes to the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), enacted in 1965.

The Long Branch Public School System receives funding under the NCLB in the following titles:

Title I, Part A - Improving Basic Programs Operated by Local Educational Agencies

Title II, Part A - Teacher and Principal Training and Recruiting Fund, Grants to States

Title III - Language Instruction for Limited English Proficient Students and Immigrant Students

Use of Funds in Schoolwide Programs

ESEA § 1114

- Funds are supplemental, not programs and services
- Funds must be used for activities that are “necessary and reasonable” to implement the schoolwide plan and meet legislative intents and purposes
 - Comprehensive needs assessment identifies the activities that are necessary and reasonable
 - Schoolwide plan documents the activities that are necessary and reasonable

Title I Schools...

- Complete a School Wide Plan including a comprehensive needs assessment

➤ Parent Involvement

- Schools receive an allocation (1% of total grant split between schools)
- District Parent Involvement Policy
- Complete a School-Parent Compact
- “Right to Know” letter to parents
- Host an annual meeting
- Language Instruction Letter within 30 days after school starts (children enrolled in a bilingual program)
