Jill DiSanti is currently entering her 9th year of coaching overall, and her 6th year as the assistant of Monmouth University. Prior to joining the Hawks in March of 2007 DiSanti served as the assistant at Quinnipiac University for three seasons.

A 2005 graduate of Quinnipiac University, DiSanti helped lead the Bobcats to two Northeast Conference tournament titles (2001, 2003), two NCAA tournament appearances (2001, 2003) and the 2002 NEC regular season title. The first team in conference history to finish the regular season with a perfect mark. In addition DiSanti, was a two time NFHCA Mid-East Region All- American (2003, 2004) as well as a three-time All-Northeast Selection (2002, 2003, 2004). She was also named the (2004) Most Valuable Player and served as the teams Captain in 2004. Most recently DiSanti's was inducted into the Quinnipiac Hall of Fame as a member of the 2001 team.

Maggie Long joined the Rutgers Athletic Development team in March 2012. As Development Assistant, Maggie will spearhead the annual giving campaign, special events coordination, Rutgers Scholarship Program, donor stewardship and fan relations. Prior to her arrival at Rutgers University, Long spent five seasons as the assistant coach for the Monmouth field hockey program after completing a stellar playing career at the College of William and Mary. Long's responsibilities included on-field coaching, recruiting, academic development, special events planning, fundraising and coordinating Monmouth Field Hockey Camps. Maggie helped guide the Hawks to back-to-back-to back Northeast Conference Championships game appearances.
